

By the King and Queen,
A PROCLAMATION,
Requiring the Attendance of the Members of both Houses of P A R L I A M E N T.

M A R I E R.

Being desirous that the Members of both Houses may have convenient Notice of the time when their Attendance in Parliament will be Requisite, to the end they may order their Affairs, so as that there may then be a Full Assembly, have (with the Advice of Our Privy Council) thought fit to Issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Declaring and Publishing Our Will and Pleasure, That Our Parliament shall on the Six and twentieth Day of this Instant September (to which Day the same is now Prorogued) be further Prorogued unto the Fourth Day of November next. In order to which Prorogation, We shall expect the Attendance only of such Members as shall be Resident in or near Our Cities of London and Westminster. And Our Purpose being that Our said Houses of Parliament shall not only Meet upon the said Fourth Day of November next, but shall sit for the Dispatch of divers Weighty and Important Affairs, We do therefore hereby Charge and Require all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses of the House of Commons, to give their Attendance at Westminster on the said Fourth Day of November next accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Whitehall the Two and twentieth Day of September, 1692. In the Fourth Year of Our Reign.

God save King William and Queen Mary.
